Five Key Phrases You Need To Know When Researching Disney Vacation Club

Home Resort

- a resort that you will buy your points from when you become a DVC member! (You can book your vacation at this resort up to 11 months before you plan to check in.)

Points

- "currency" you use to book your vacations each year. (DVC members purchase a certain number of points when they buy a contract & they receive that number of points every year after.)

Contract Cost

- upfront dollar amount per point that you will pay to become a member. (Think of it as the purchase price for a home.)

Use Year

- the start of your DVC points each year. (If you have a February Use Year, any vacations booked on or after February 1st, 2022 will use your 2022 allotment of points.)

Annual Dues

- dollar amount per point you will pay each year that you are a member. (This number is based on the condition of your home resort, i.e ongoing maintenance and refurbishments. Annual Dues generally increase each year, so be sure to budget accordingly!
